

Term		Week	Focus	Summary	Revision	Learning Outcomes
Term 1		1
		2
		3	Planning	Analysing the steps and instructions contained in a trip plan		Writing and speaking a series of interconnected steps for planning a trip to the museum of the future
		4		Analysing a plan for a trip abroad: exploring linguistic structures, main ideas and supporting details		learners will be writing their plans for a trip abroad using ordinal numbers and connectives
		5				Writing a first draft of a letter persuading a friend to join the trip
		6		Planning a trip abroad		Writing a first/second draft of a letter persuading a friend to join the trip
		7				Assessment, feedback & response
		8
		9	Comparison & choice: Types of shopping	Explore persuasive language features.		Holding a debate with a friend about the pros and cons of direct and online shopping. Each adopts and defends a point of view.
		10		Analysing & using the information in persuasive texts to compare and make a choice and justify it.		Writing the first draft of a persuasive text on the pros and cons of direct and online shopping, explaining the points of view and supporting its choice with evidence that convinces the reader of this choice.
		11		Analysing comparative persuasive texts to find main ideas and supporting details and assess the writer's language		Final writing and publishing to compare live and online shopping in detail
		12	Comparison & choice: Social media platforms	Explore persuasive language features.		Holding a debate with a friend about the pros and cons of social media platforms. Each adopts and defends a point of view.
		13		Analysing & using the information in persuasive texts to compare and make a choice and justify it.		Writing the first draft of a persuasive text on the pros and cons of Social media platforms, explaining the points of view and supporting its choice with evidence that convinces the reader of this choice.
		14		Analysing comparative persuasive texts to find main ideas and supporting details and assess the writer's language		Final writing and publishing to compare Social media platforms in detail
					Assessment, feedback & response	