

Term	Date	Focus - Unit 1	Summary	Learning Outcomes	Focus - Unit 2	Summary	Learning Outcomes
Term 2	02/01/23
	09/01/23	MOCK EXAM SEASON				Introductions	Students write their first draft of their introduction to their essay. This should clearly outline the focus, aims and purposes and a potential thesis.
	16/01/23				NEA Coursework	Methodology and Data Analysis	Explaining in detail the processes taken to complete data collection, including secondary data too. What were the findings? Links to theories too
	23/01/23	Mock exam feedback				Conclusion	Summarising findings and considerations for the future
	30/01/23	International English	How international is English?	Students explore the concept of English as an international language
	06/02/23	International English	Models of world Englishes	Students are introduced to different models of world Englishes
	13/02/23	School Break Half Term February
	20/02/23	International English	How English varies around the world	Students explore how English varies around their world and reflect on their own experiences	NEA Coursework	First full draft	Students will write up their full essay report of their findings from their research. They will apply theoretical references and embed key subject terminology throughout. Throughout this process, students will be given 2 opportunities to produce a draft before final submission
	27/02/23	International English	Cross-cultural misunderstanding	Students explore the pitfalls and misunderstandings of international English		Peer assessment
	06/03/23	International English	Attitudes to English in the world	Students explore different attitudes to international English and reflect on their own experiences		Second full draft
	13/03/23	International English	Language change around the world	Students explore why language changes and the contributing factors e.g technology		Teacher feedback
	20/03/23	International English	Language change and the individual			Final submission		