

Term	Week	Focus	Summary	Learning Outcomes	Learning skills
Term 1.1	1	My autobiography: personal information	- Reading and analyzing key information from an autobiography. - Past tense retrieval. - Read Arabic dates according to numbers' rules.	- Writing autobiography first draft with a focus on personal information & using past tense.	Narration Description Connection finding Critical or logical thinking Analysis: precision Creating
	2	My autobiography: childhood memories	- Analyzing information from an autobiography extract about childhood memories (readable & audio). - Using narrative and transition phrases in various contexts.	- Writing autobiography second draft with a focus on childhood memories & using narrative and transition phrases.	Narration Realizing: speed and accuracy Analysis: critical or logical thinking Linking: connection finding
	3	My autobiography: hobbies & skills	- Extracting information on the writer's hobbies & skills. - Exploring adjective and adverbs phrases rules and applying them in different contexts.	- Providing a lengthy oral presentation about himself/herself. - Writing autobiography third draft with a focus on hobbies and skills.	Narration Description Realizing: speed and accuracy Empathetic: confident Intellectual confidence
	4	My autobiography: ambitions & challenges	- Analyzing an autobiography extract about ambitions & challenges. - Using expressions of opinion and reasoning phrases.	- Writing autobiography final draft stating ambitions, plans & challenges. - Presenting entire autobiography. - Self & peer assess autobiographies.	Narration Planning Precision Self-regulation Intellectual confidence
	5	The Life story of a Prominent Leader: childhood and education	- Analyzing the most important details in famous people's biographies. - Using advanced narration expressions and structures, and time phrases.	- Writing biographies of close friends or famous people in the community, mentioning the most important events in their life (first draft).	Narration Description Agile: creative and Enterprising Analysis: critical or logical thinking Linking: connection finding

	6	The Life story of a Prominent Leader: most important events	- Identifying and analyzing the most important details in the biography of a well-known person. - retrieval: conjugating past and present verbs with different pronouns.	- Providing an oral presentation about role models in a specific field. - Writing biographies of close friends or famous people in the community, mentioning the most important events in their life (Final draft).	Narration Description Creating Realizing: precision Empathetic: confident
	7	ABC Assessment
Term 1.2	1	My autobiography: Famous personality traits and achievements	Analyze the paragraph and mention the most important information about the character. Using advanced narration expressions and structures, and time phrases.	Use the vocabulary he learned to write an autobiography about a person in his life that he loves.	Narration Description Connection finding Critical or logical thinking Analysis: precision Creating
	2	My autobiography: Using the phone while driving	Analyzes the paragraph and mentions the effect of using the phone on the driver and its seriousness.	writes a short story about an accident of someone he knows who was using the phone while driving and then had an accident.	Narration Planning Precision Self-regulation Intellectual confidence
	3	My autobiography: Limit phone use while driving	Infer the harms of using the phone while driving. using advanced narrative expressions and structures in different contexts.	Use what he knows about using the phone while driving to write an article about the dangers of using the phone while driving and the harm it causes to him and others.	Narration Description Agile: creative and Enterprising
	4	Revision and Assessment
	5	My autobiography: Tips for using the phone while driving	Using verbs in different contexts. Using motivating phrases in different contexts.	writing a topic in which he gives his advice on limiting your use of the phone while driving, taking into account the use of proper combinations.	Narration Description Creating Realizing: precision Empathetic: confident

	6	My autobiography: Internet addiction and communication sites	Reading and analysis. - Retrieving the linking tools between sentences. - Retrieve adverbs of time and place	writing a topic about the pros and cons of social networking sites and the most important sites that we can benefit from.	Narration Realizing: speed and accuracy Analysis: critical or logical thinking Linking: connection finding
	7	My autobiography:	Analyze the information from the paragraph you read. mentions the psychological and physical harms of using the phone and communication sites.	writing a topic about Internet addiction and communication sites, in which he provides some advice to reduce excessive phone use.	Narration Planning Precision Self-regulation Intellectual confidence