

Term	Week	Focus	Summary	Learning Outcomes	Learning skills
Term 2.1	1	MOCKS
	2
	3
	4	Introduction to Project-Mesopotamia	Research Method and Proposal	Describe different research methods and Proposals. Understand the importance of Data collection and analysis for the project.	Meta-thinking (self-regulation), Analysing (critical or logical thinking), Creating, Communication, and Research skills.
	5	Project	Data analysis	Evaluate the data collected	Analysing- Critical thinking, Collaboration, Creativity
	6	Project	Writing Project Report	Create an original project report individually.	Research skills, Creativity, Collaboration, Critical Thinking, Communication

Term 2.2	1&2	Project	Project Submission and Final Review	Analyse the projects that have been created	Creativity, Analysing- Critical Thinking, Agile-Risk Taking, Collaboration, Problem-solving, Communication, Research skills.
	3	Intercultural Relationships	Visible and Invisible Culture, different approaches to understanding culture.	Categorise visible and invisible culture; compare and contrast different approaches of understanding cultures.	Analysing- Critical thinking, Collaboration
	4	Intercultural Relationships	Role and challenges of intercultural communication; values.	Demonstrate understanding of direct and indirect communication; identify challenges to intercultural communication.	Analysing- Critical thinking, Collaboration
	5	Being a responsible adult-1	'Core Values' and 'Societal Types'; Key Qualities of a Responsible Adult; Key Differences Between 'Rights' and 'Obligations'	1. Explain the difference between needs and rights, and how rights benefit individual lives and society as a whole. 2. Present your opinion to your peers based on primary and secondary research evidence on what your responsibilities would be as a responsible adult.	Analysing- Critical thinking, Collaboration